The owner or operator may mail such payments to the city's director of finance within the time established herein, but shall be responsible for delivery thereof to the office of the director of finance.

SECTION II: This ordinance shall take effect immediately as an emergency ordinance in that the City Council has declared it to be necessary to preserve the public peace and safety for the following reasons:

1. This ordinance implements the provisions of Chapter 1040, Statutes 1985, which will take effect on January 1, 1986 relating to the bail for parking citations. If this ordinance is not adopted, the bail for parking citations will not be consistent with the requirements of Chapter 1040. This inconsistency could result in the citations being dismissed by the court.

2. The administrative costs necessary to implement Chapter 1040, by the City of Chula Vista, will be incurred immediately due to the necessity to print new citations. In the absence of this ordinance, funds from other sources would be necessary to cover the costs. The depletion of other funding sources would have an adverse effect on the public peace, health and safety.
