

ORDINANCE NO. 2453

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CHULA VISTA AMENDING SECTIONS
2.28.020, 2.28.040, AND 2.28.050 OF CHAPTER 2.28 RELATING TO THE BOARD OF ETHICS

The City Council of the City of Chula Vista does ordain as follows:

SECTION I: That Sections 2.28.020, 2.28.040 and 2.28.050 of Chapter 2.28 of the Chula Vista Municipal Code are amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2.28.020 Application of Ordinance.

This Chapter shall apply only to members of the Chula Vista City Council, City Manager, City Attorney, City Clerk, board members and commissioners, as well as to ex-City officers who were subject to the Conflict of Interest Code.

Sec. 2.28.040 Fair and Equal Treatment.

No official subject to this Code, shall grant or make available to any person any consideration, treatment, advantage or favor beyond that which is the general practice to grant or make available to the public at large.

Sec. 2.28.050 Unethical Conduct.

1. General Policy. One of the highest callings is that of public service. With that service comes a requirement to conduct oneself in a manner above reproach, since the citizens of the community expect and deserve a high standard of conduct and performance. This Code of Ethics provides the following general guidelines and specific prohibitions to which City officials must conform in the pursuit of their assigned duties and responsibilities.

- a. All City officials should endeavor to fulfill their obligations to the citizens of Chula Vista, city management and fellow employees through respect and cooperation. They should strive to protect and enhance the image and reputation of the City, its elected and appointed officials, and its employees. All citizens conducting business with the City shall be treated with courtesy, efficiency and impartiality and none shall receive special advantage beyond that available to any others. Officials shall always be mindful of the public trust and confidence in the daily exercise of their assigned duties, striving to conserve public funds through diligent and judicious management.

2. Specific Prohibitions. City officials (including nonpaid commission, board and committee members) shall be considered to have committed unethical conduct if any of the following occur:
- a. Used one's position or title for personal gain but not found to be an act of illegality or conflict of interest by the District Attorney, Grand Jury or Fair Political Practices Commission.
 - b. Knowingly divulge confidential information for personal gain or for the gain of associates in a manner disloyal to the City.
 - c. Knowingly make false statements about members of the City Council or other City employees that tend to discredit or embarrass, those persons.
 - d. Used or permitted the use of City time, personnel, supplies, equipment, identification cards/badges or facilities for unapproved non-City activities, except when available to the general public or provided for by administrative regulations.
 - e. No ex-City officer for a period of one year after leaving office or employment, shall, for compensation, act as agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any oral or written communication, before any City administrative office or agency, or officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is made for the purpose of influencing administrative action, or influencing any action or proceeding involving the issuance, amendment, awarding, or revocation of a permit, license, grant, or contract, or the sale or purchase of goods or property.
 - f. Endorsed or recommended for compensation any commercial product or service in the name of the city or in the employee's official capacity within the city without prior approval by a City Council policy.

SECTION II: This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force on the thirtieth day after its adoption.
