Section 102.1 The Administrative Authority shall be the Director of Building and Housing--the Authority duly appointed to enforce this Code.

Subsection 103.4.4.2 An investigation fee, in addition to the permit fee, shall be collected whether or not a permit is then or subsequently issued. The investigation fee shall be equal to the amount of the permit fee that would be required by this Code if a permit were to be issued. The payment of such investigation fee shall not exempt any person from compliance with all other provisions of this Code, nor from any penalty prescribed by law.

Subsection 103.4.4.3 This provision shall not apply to emergency work when it shall be proven to the satisfaction of the Administrative Authority that such work was urgently necessary and that it was not practical to obtain a permit before commencement of the work. This provision is not to be interpreted as requiring reinspection fees the first time a job is rejected for failure to comply with the requirements of this Code, but as controlling the practice of calling for inspections before the job is ready for inspection or reinspection.

Reinspection fees may be assessed when the approved plans are not readily available to the inspector, for failure to provide access on the date for which the inspection is required, or for deviating from plans requiring the approval of the Administrative Authority.

To obtain a re-inspection, the applicant shall file an application in writing upon the form furnished for that purpose and pay the re-inspection fee in accordance with the Master Fee Schedule of the City of Chula Vista.

In instances where reinspection fees have been assessed, no additional inspection of the work will be performed until the required fees have been paid.
